If you are unable to make a class, please contact CTRH 24 hours prior to the class date for an excused absence. Only excused absences are given a credit that can be used in an upcoming session in the same year. We do not refund missed classes. If a rider is more than 15 minutes late it will be considered a “No Show” and class will proceed without you.

No Shorts or Capri Pants are allowed for riding (legs must be covered). No Crocs, Sandals or other footwear that doesn’t protect the foot entirely are allowed for riding.

Rider should be fever/vomit free for 24 hours before being sent back to our facility. We don’t want to spread illness to others.

CTRH Programming Weather Guidelines:

Programming may be canceled or discontinued if the following occurs, but is still subject to termination per discretion of the onsite instructor or treating therapist.

Weather Conditions as follows:

- The Milford School District being closed due to winter weather
- Heat being over 90 degrees or cold being under 25 degrees (call if unsure)
- Thunderstorms (driving rain, lightening or thundering)
- High winds
- Snow or ice falling from the top of the facility

Cancellations will be communicated with a call to rider caregivers and posting on CTRH’s Facebook page as quickly as possible once determination has been made.
